STEWARDSHIP

November 15, 2009 - Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away." (Mk 13:31) The Word of God is the foundation upon which everything rests. It is real and lives among us. As good stewards, we are called to live the Word daily as it helps us to be numbered among the chosen on the last day. For more information about stewardship at St. Mary's, please call 781-826-4303.

CARNIVAL/BAZAAR

Our Carnival/Bazaar was a great success!!!! The weather was beautiful and the children were able to enjoy many games during the day, many parishioners came for lunch, dinner, socialized with other parishioners and were able to start some Christmas shopping.

Many thanks to Karen and Brian Gill and their committee for all their time and effort in making the Carnival/Bazaar such a successful parish event.

"Thanksgiving"

*O God, when I have food,
help me to remember the hungry;
When I have work,
help me to remember the jobless;
When I have a home,
help me to remember those who have no home at all;
When I am without pain,
help me to remember those who suffer,
And remembering,
help me to destroy my complacency;
bestir my compassion,
and be concerned enough to help;
By word and deed,
those who cry out for what we take for granted.*

Amen.

- Samuel F. Pugh

Thought for the Week

As we remember our Veterans, the thought to reflect on is.....

“He who stands for nothing will fall for anything.”

Alexander Hamilton

We all need to remember how important God is in our lives and proudly share our Faith with others.

Character Trait: Do you stand up for your faith?
Do you share God's good news with others?
